Spain Gives Oppressed Constitutional Liberty

MADRID. Nov. 8.—A royal edict today restores the constitution to the Catalonian provinces, which he been for mentils under martial rule, an incident of which was the execution of Panelseo Ferrer. The restoration of constitutional privileges to Catalonia is the first step of the Moret ministry towards pacifying the popular movement against the government which broke out on the execution of the revolutionary and free-though lender.

Some doubt was felt when Senor Moret accepted the task of creating a new ministry from the antagonistic factions around him, as to his ability to stem the tide of agitation directed toward the government. and this new step is considered as a complete recognition of the voice

The agitation which was started by the hot protests against the Moroccan campaign and which was ripened by the Ferrer execution, is still powerful, although the resignation of Premier Maura did much to allay it. It is thought that there are still changes of Premier Moret being forced to resign.

PROSECUTION WEAK IN STEINHEIL CASE.

PARIS, Nov. 8.-Watched by the greater part of the European and American world, the famous Steinhell case is progressing slowly, and today's session is considered as being in the defendant's fayor. The prosecution has been able to produce no direct evidence that will im-plicate Madame Steinhell with the two murders she is charged with committing, and the defense is confident that she will be given her

The sudden and dramatic alleged confession made a few days ago by a stranger among the spectators has come to nothing. The police have been unable to find the man who mace it and scoff at the idea that it has any bearing on the case.

PRESIDENT FAVORS NATIONAL SANITATION.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 8 .- In his speech here today President Taft placed himself on record as being in favor of national sanitation . His remarks were emphatic on the subject, and he stated that, in his belief, a national board of health would correct many flagrant evils now

This was the last address which he will make on his famous swing around the circle, which will go into history as one of the most strenuous speech-making trips ever made by any chief executive. Today he made an address at the State Fair aand leaves this evening for Wash-

RUSSIAN COMMITS DOUBLE CRIME.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8 .- One of the most sensational crimes in the history of this city was consummated here this evening in the sight many hundreds of people. Ignate Novikow, a Russian of this city, while on the Oakland ferry, suddenly drew a revolver and fired point blank at his mother-in-law and her daughter.

The two victims fell to the deck, and as the men near him rushed forward he turned the weapon upon himself, fired, and dropped dead. Mrs. Scholtz the mother-in-law, was fatally wounded and died in a few minutes, het daughter following her over the border a little later.

REVOLUTIONISTS AMBUSH GOVERNMENT FORCES.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, Nov. 8.—A large party of revolutionists have ambushed government forces a few miles west of here, routing them and killing 100 men. The revolutionists are moving up on Zelaya's capital in large numbers, and have gained several minor victories over government troops. The result of the revolution is in doubt will turn the scales.
